ELECTRONIC PUBLIC ACCESS FEES

The Judicial Conference of the United States, at its March, 2001, Conference, approved the creation of a separate Fee Schedule for Electronic Public Access (EPA Fee Schedule), to be effective July 1, 2001. The following items are included in the EPA Fee Schedule:

1.	Electronic access to court data via dial up service:	60 cents per minute
	For public users obtaining information through a federal judiciary Internet site: Note: Attorneys of record and parties in a case (including pro se litigants) receive one free electronic copy of all documents filed electronically, if receipt is required by law or directed by the filer. No fee is owed under this provision until an account holder accrues charges of more than $10 in a calendar year.	7 cents per page
2.	Printing copies of any record or document accessed electronically at a public terminal in the courthouse:	10 cents per page
3.	Search of court records conducted by the PACER Service Center:	$20
