

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA

MEMORANDUM

TO: ATTORNEY FOR PLAINTIFF

FROM: CLERKS OFFICE, U. S. BANKRUPTCY COURT

RE: ADVERSARY PROCEEDING INFORMATION (Service of Summons and Complaint)

Attached hereto is a copy of the Summons and Notice of Pretrial Conference which has been prepared for the Complaint you filed. It is the responsibility of the Attorney for the plaintiff to serve a copy of the Summons (which also contains the notice of pretrial) and a copy of the Complaint on each defendant named in the complaint (copies must conform to the original) in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 7004. Please note that while Bankruptcy Rule 7004(c) permits service by publication in certain circumstances, service by publication may only be made with authorization by the Court.

Also attached hereto is a Memorandum re: Procedure for Inclusion of Name on Case Matrix and for Receiving of Electronic Notices in the Case and a Memorandum re: Instructions and Information for Pretrial Scheduling Memorandum. Please serve the attached memoranda on the parties at the time that you serve the Summons and Complaint.

TIME LIMIT FOR SERVICE. The Summons and Complaint must be served within seven (7) days from the date of the issuance of the Summons unless a shorter time period is required by the Court. This would occur if the time for answering the complaint is shortened by the Court (less than 30 days from the date of issuance of the Summons). In that event, the Court requests that service of the Summons and Complaint be made as soon as possible - or at least within three (3) days.

If the Summons and Complaint are not served within the proper time, it will be necessary to file a request for reissuance of summons with the Court and a new Summons will be issued.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE. After the Summons and Complaint have been served on the Defendants, you must file a certificate of service with the Court. This may be done by completing the back of the Summons form and filing same with the Court, using the CM/ECF event: Summons Service Executed. This certificate of service must be filed promptly after the defendants have been served.

MEMORANDUM

TO: PARTIES IN ADVERSARY PROCEEDING

FROM: CLERKS OFFICE, U. S. BANKRUPTCY COURT

RE: PROCEDURE FOR INCLUSION OF NAME ON CASE MATRIX AND FOR RECEIVING OF ELECTRONIC NOTICES IN THE CASE

By being a party in an adversary proceeding, you may be interested in having your name placed on the bankruptcy case matrix in order that you can be informed of the various hearings scheduled in the case itself. Because adversary proceedings are filed and maintained separately from the bankruptcy cases, parties in an adversary proceeding are not automatically added to the bankruptcy case matrix. If you do desire that your name and address be added to the case matrix, you may send the Court a letter requesting this action. If your attorney desires to be placed on the case matrix, he/she should file a Notice of Appearance in the case with the Court.

Please be advised that once an attorney files a pleading in the adversary proceeding, he/she will automatically receive electronic notices of documents filed in both the adversary proceeding and the main bankruptcy case. The attorney has the option to decline to receive notification for related bankruptcy cases by accessing the CM/ECF menu "Maintain Your ECF Account", "Email information", and selecting the option to only receive notification in the adversary proceedings in which he/she is involved.

MEMORANDUM

FROM: CLERKS OFFICE, U. S. BANKRUPTCY COURT

RE: INSTRUCTIONS AND INFORMATION FOR PRETRIAL SCHEDULING

In accordance with Rule 26(f) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Bankruptcy Rule 7026, this Court requires that the parties to an adversary proceeding meet at least 21 days prior to the scheduled Pretrial. At such meeting, the parties are required to discuss the items described in Federal Rule 26(f).

If the parties agree on a discovery plan, they must sign and file a Joint Scheduling Memorandum with the Court within 14 days after the previously described scheduling meeting. The parties must also prepare and attach to the memorandum a separate Scheduling Order. The Scheduling Order should designate a specific date that all final pre-trial disclosures shall be filed with the Court and served on the opposing counsel. In the event the Court signs the Scheduling Order, the initial pretrial hearing will be cancelled.

If all matters in the Scheduling Memorandum are not agreed to by all parties, a separate Scheduling Memorandum must be filed by each party within 14 days after the scheduling meeting. Absent notification to the contrary, the Court will conduct the initial pretrial hearing if separate Scheduling Memorandums are filed.

IN ANY EVENT, THE SCHEDULING MEMORANDUM(S) SHALL BE FILED NO LATER THAN SEVEN DAYS (7) PRIOR TO THE SCHEDULED PRETRIAL HEARING.

If a party files a request for additional time to file an answer, a proposed order should also be filed with the court, which addresses the scheduling of the pretrial hearing and the time for filing a Scheduling Memorandum. Attached is an example of such an Order.

A copy of this memorandum (with attached form Joint Scheduling Memorandum, Scheduling Order and Scheduling Memorandum) shall be served with the summons and complaint by the plaintiff upon each defendant.

1. The time limits set forth in the joint scheduling memorandum are approved and shall be binding upon the parties;
2. The initial pre-trial conference scheduled for _____, 201_, is cancelled; and
3. All final pre-trial disclosures shall be filed with the Court and served on the opposing counsel by the ___ day of _____, 201_, unless a dispositive motion is filed in which case the final pre-trial disclosures shall be filed within 20 days of the entry of the Order ruling on the dispositive motion.
4. The defendant shall have 30 days from the date of this Order within which to file a brief or legal memorandum in support of any defenses asserting insufficiency of process, insufficiency of service of process and failure to state claims for relief. If the defendant files a brief or legal memorandum in support of such defenses, the plaintiffs shall have 60 days from the date of this Order within which to file a brief or legal memorandum in opposition to the defendant's brief or legal memorandum. If the defendant does not file a supporting brief or legal memorandum on or before 30 days from the date of this Order, defendant shall be deemed to have abandoned the foregoing defenses and an order overruling and denying such defenses shall be entered.
5. The parties shall have 30 days from entry of this Order to file a motion to determine whether the Bankruptcy Court may enter a final judgment or order in any cause of action to which the parties do not consent to entry of a final judgment or order by the Bankruptcy Court.
