STANDING ORDER

Amendments to Rules 1001,1006, 1015, 2002, 3002, 3007, 3012, 3015, 4003, 5009, 7001 and 9009 and new Rule 3015.1 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure shall take effect on December 1, 2017 (the “Amendments to the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure”), and shall govern in all cases and proceedings, as applicable, thereafter commenced, and insofar as just and practical, all cases and proceedings then pending.

The Court has carefully considered the impact of the application of the amendments on pending cases and proceedings and has concluded that the application of the amendments to cases and proceedings pending prior to December 1, 2017, including cases converted from one chapter to another after December 1, 2017, or proceedings within such cases, could be unjust and impracticable and create a burden on the bar and Court.

Therefore, IT IS ORDERED that the Amendments to the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure shall govern in all cases commenced on or after December 1, 2017, and in all proceedings in such cases, and that the amendments shall have no application to cases pending prior to December 1, 2017, or in any proceedings in such cases.

This 17th day of November, 2017

CATHARINE R. ARON
Chief United States Bankruptcy Judge

LENA M. JAMES
United States Bankruptcy Judge

BENJAMIN A. KAHN
