STANDING ORDER

The Bankruptcy Noticing Center (“BNC”) continues to experience a nationwide service disruption that prevents it from transmitting notices and orders to parties in the ordinary course. On October 15, 2026, the Court entered Standing Order 26-01 implementing temporary procedures. Paragraph B.2 of that Order provides that the Clerk shall remain responsible for duties expressly imposed on the Clerk by the Bankruptcy Rules, including Rules 4004(g) and 4006. For purposes of the Clerk’s compliance with any noticing requirements imposed by the Bankruptcy Rules or Bankruptcy Code, including without limitation Rules 4004(g) and 4006, prompt notice is construed to mean notice as promptly as practicable in light of the BNC’s ongoing service disruption. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105(a), Rules 2002 and 9006 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, and the Court’s authority to administer its docket, and subject in all respects to applicable statutes, rules, and due process, it is hereby ORDERED on this 23rd day of October 2026 that, any prompt noticing requirements imposed by the Bankruptcy Rules or the Bankruptcy Code, including without limitation Rules 4004(g) and 4006, on the Clerk of Court shall be construed to require notice as promptly as practicable in light of the BNC’s ongoing outage.¹

Dated: October 23, 2026

Benjamin A. Kahn
Chief, United States Bankruptcy Judge
